

Spirit Dress Up Days:

General rules- all jeans with frays or tears must be below the fingertips. All shirts must be school appropriate, cover your stomach and meet the 4 fingertip wide rule. All logos and phrases must be appropriate. Jeans must be worn at the waist. Have fun...but don't get crazy with it! We must be able to learn while being dressed up. That means what you are wearing should not be a disruption to learning environment!

Dress the Kerr Way with Cougar Pride!

Tuesday, September 18th

Tuesday, September 18th will be "Blind the Pirates" to help support our Cougars as they take on Granbury Acton.

You can wear jeans with any neon shirt- the brighter the better. No face paint and jeans may not have tears or frays above fingertips.

If you are not participating please be in dress code. Have fun and play by the rules!

Tuesday, September 25th

Tuesday, September 25th will be “Hunt the Bears” to help support our Cougars as they take on Brewer.

You can wear jeans or camo pants with a camo shirt. Camo hats are also allowed. No face paint and jeans may not have tears or frays above fingertips. If you are not participating please be in dress code. Have fun and play by the rules!

Tuesday, October 2nd

Tuesday, October 2nd will be “Lei out the Pirates” to help support our Cougars as they take on Granbury.

You can wear jeans with a Hawaiian shirt and leis. Grass skirts will also be allowed. No face paint and jeans may not have tears or frays above fingertips. If you are not participating please be in dress code. Have fun and play by the rules!

Tuesday, October 9th

Tuesday, October 9th will be “Tie up the Kangaroos” to help support our Cougars as they take on Weatherford.

You can wear jeans and a tie dye shirt. No face paint and jeans may not have tears or frays above fingertips. If you are not participating please be in dress code. Have fun and play by the rules!

Tuesday, October 16th

Tuesday, October 16th will be “Freaky Friday” to help support our Cougars as they take on the Cleburne Yellow Jackets.

Find a partner to be a twin with! Jeans are allowed, but no costumes. No face paint and jeans may not have tears or frays above fingertips. If you are not participating please be in dress code. Have fun and play by the rules!

Tuesday, October 23rd

Tuesday, October 23rd will be “BLUE OUT” to help support our Cougars as they take on the Aledo Wildcats.

You can wear jeans and a blue shirt. No face paint and jeans may not have tears or frays above fingertips. If you are not participating please be in dress code. Have fun and play by the rules!

Tuesday, October 30th

Tuesday, October 30th will be “Destroy the Kangaroos” to help support our Cougars as they take on Weatherford.

You can wear jeans and a superhero shirt. Eye masks and small capes are allowed, but no full costumes. No face paint and jeans may not have tears above fingertips. If you are not participating please be in dress code. Have fun and play by the rules!

Tuesday, November 6th

Tuesday, November 6th will be “Battle the Huskies” to help support our Cougars as they take on Hughes.

You can wear jeans and a shirt in your grades color. 6th grade wear white, 7th grade wear black and 8th grade wear blue. We will have class battles at our pep rally!!! No face paint and jeans may not have tears above fingertips. If you are not participating please be in dress code. Have fun and play by the rules!